Sprout Film Festival!

It's time once again to welcome the Sprout Film Festival to the Eugene/Springfield area. If you haven't already met our new Executive Director, April Wick, this is the perfect opportunity!

Sprout is a traveling film festival based out of New York that features films created by, starring, or about people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Sprout showcases achievements and talents, highlights alternate perspectives, and breaks down misconceptions about children and adults with I/DD.

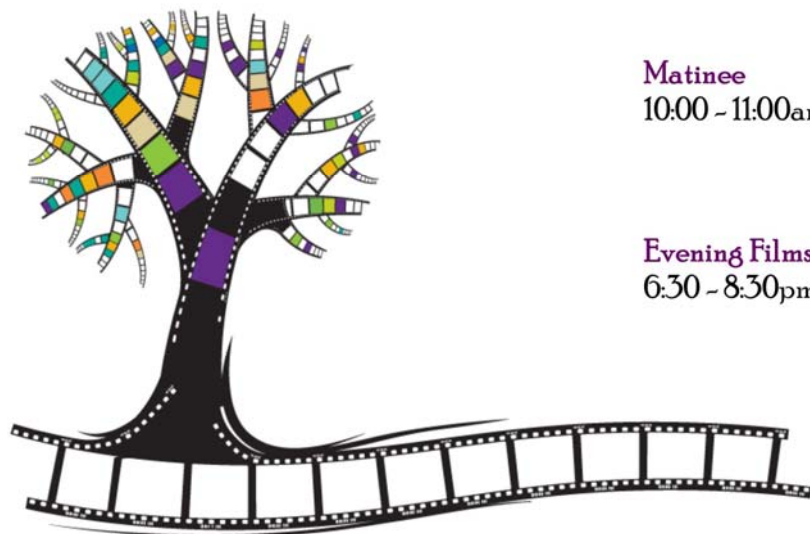

Sprout films are rich in content and visually delightful. Genres include: drama, comedy, documentary, animation, music videos and artistic. There's something for everyone!

Please join us at the Wildish Theatre Tuesday, May 10 at 6:30 pm to celebrate our 9th year of bringing these wonderful films to our community. We will also be offering a free matinee for students courtesy of our sponsors, including Making Magic Tours and the Full Access Board of Directors.

Hope to see you there!
